A little history of LaBelle from: Bob rlsharp@pacificovertures.com

Bob's mother¹s uncle (Moses Harrison) Harry Lipes; had a hardware store in LaBelle.

Bob's grandfather John William Sharp (up to 1919 had the store six miles of LaBelle that gave the name Sharpburg to the corner that now going uphill to the east is Heartland Dairy ... which itself is my great grandfather Adolphus Fishback's old place).

Bob's great uncle Joseph Layfayette Sharp who was a prosperous farmer, longtime LaBelle school board member.

Bob's great uncle Robert Knight Sharp who died young from falling on a pitchfork out of the barn.

Bob's mother¹s father Dr. Samuel Ernest Wallace, LaBelle¹s dentist from the turn of the century until 1943; stone deaf from his 20s (his form of anethesia... he couldn¹t hear complaints).

Bob's mother¹s mother, Willa Lipes Wallace; a local beauty from Deerridge who thought herself far too grand for a small town.
